- (1) May represent current period realized capital gains, which are subject to change based on the Fund’s investment activity through its calendar year-end. Should the Fund’s net income or capital gains position change, the calendar year-to-date amounts will be updated to reflect those changes.
- (2) This amount may represent a return of the shareholders’ principal, unrealized capital gains that may be recognized prior to the Fund’s calendar year-end, or some combination thereof. Should the Fund’s net income or capital gains position change, the calendar year-to-date amounts will be updated to reflect those changes.
- (3) Percentage of Distributions which are Interest-Related Dividends (commonly referred to as Qualified Interest Income) in accordance with Internal Revenue Code §871(k), that may be exempt from U.S. withholding tax when distributed to non-U.S. shareholders.

In 2025, the Fund will send to shareholders such tax information reporting forms (e.g., Internal Revenue Service Form 1099-DIV) as are required by applicable law. Those tax information reporting forms will contain information that the tax authorities require the Fund to provide to shareholders, which includes information about how the Fund is reporting the character of distributions paid by the Fund to the applicable tax authorities along with other information required to be reported under applicable law.

The Fund does not provide tax advice. Shareholders should consult with their own tax advisers as to the tax consequences of the source of any distributions by the Fund, or any other aspect of holding common shares in the Fund. Any statements as to U.S. tax matters contained in the notice were not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the Internal Revenue Code or applicable state or local tax law provisions.
